APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

Dr. Molloy and Miss Alice Mulligan of Lexington.

Lexington Leader.

The wedding of Dr. Molloy and Miss Alice Mulligan will certainly be one of the most interesting events of the marrying-tide. Do you know a brighter, sweeter, "sousier" maid than the little fair-haired bride; a mental, moral and physical specimen of manhood more calculated to win a young girl's heart than the good man of her choice? How merrily the wedding bells will ring and how gaily will they flock to smile our blessings on the blissful twain—if we are invited to!

It is to be a November wedding at St. Paul's Church at 11 o'clock in the morning and a very swell affair full of picturesque touches. Mrs. Mulligan is a very artist in all such matters, and in all other matters too, for the matter of that, and her daughter's wedding I hear is going to be a veritable poem. Shall I tell you about the wedding dress? Not now, wait.

Miss Mulligan has chosen for her bridesmaids Misses Louise Saunders, Nora Graves, Madge McDowell and Julia Duke of Louisville. Her sister will be Maid of Honor.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Those who will Receive or Entertain during the ensuing week are kindly invited to favor Saturday's LEDGER with an announcement of the fact.

Miss Bertha Daulton entertained quite a number of her friends last evening at her home. All report a good time.

Miss Alberta Caldwell of Mayslick is entertaining a party of charming young ladies this week, viz: Misses Elizabeth Jefferson of Lexington, Mayme Key, Lena Alexander, Jean Brough and Margaret Rebb of Mason county.

Mrs. John Wilson of Mayslick entertained the Euchre Club on Thursday evening at her handsome home, "The Cedars." A sumptuous lunch was served during the game. Dancing was also a feature of the evening.

Last night at the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. T. H. N. Smith that elite crowd of young people known as "The Bon Ton" entertained in honor of Miss Bessie Peed, who leaves on Monday next for Hollings, Va. In acting as hostess Miss Peed showed off her hospitality to advantage, and had a rare chance to make her parting from "The Bon Tons" one long to be remembered in the hearts of all by the happy associations connected with it. Spencer Walker's Orchestra of five pieces furnished the music and never was dancing more enjoyed. At an early morning hour the young people left to flirt with Morpheus and to dream of the happy event which was made sad by the thought of losing their favorite member from the ranks of their chosen few.

THE BOYS LOST.

Score 8 to 1 in Favor of Lexington—Some Notes.

The game yesterday was without interest, especially to Maysville rooters.

Shanks pitched, and must have been extremely off, as the Lexingtons won out by a score of Lexington 8, Maysville 1.

Well, there's one consolation left—Shepherd and Newton are to go in yet, and the former will pitch this afternoon. The team leaves Lexington tomorrow for Knoxville, where they play a series of games with that strong team.

The Lexington Herald says of Thursday's game: "After five innings yesterday of an interesting and well played game at the ball park the umpire called the game.

But here's the score:

	A.	B.	R.	H.	B.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Cox, I. F.	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1
Kellner, C.	2	0	0	3	0	0	1
Hall, B.	2	1	1	3	3	0
Shanks, R. F.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Newton, P.	2	0	0	0	3	0
Sutherland, B.	2	0	1	9	0
McShane, B.	2	0	0	0	2	0
Wadsworth, C. F.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Lautenbach, S. S.	2	0	0	0	1	0
	18	1	2	15	9	1

Earned runs—Lexington 1.
Stolen bases—Cox, Schabel.
Bases on balls—Off Newton 2, off Lindsay 1.
Hit by Pitcher—Schabel.
Struck out—Mullane 2, Lindsay, Hall.
Time of game—One hour.
Umpire—M. Lindsay.

There has been quite a shake-up in the Knoxville team. McDonald the South-paw twirler who pitched several games in this city and who was pretty well liked by our local fans, together with Hempleman and Dillard have been "fired" and Smith, Lehay and Nicklin have been signed in their places.

The Lexington Leader says: "The Maysville Club has Newton and all its cracker-jacks back and is capable of playing good ball. The players are different from some of the Paris crowd. They are gentlemen. Don't miss the game."

The Paris team won Thursday's game at Knoxville by a score of 19 to 6. Batteries—Paris, Clausen and Matthews; Knoxville, McDonald and Gibson.

There was a game in Hunter's Park yesterday afternoon between the West and East Enders, which resulted in a score of 21 to 12 in favor of the West Enders.

It's a wonder The Paris Reporter wouldn't quit publishing that old stale Bluegrass League schedule.

Miss Lizzie Wormald, daughter of Mr. Jacob Wormald, has been quite ill with asthma for several days.

Mr. George W. Sulser has moved his law office to the room adjoining Dr. Shackelford's office on Court street.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, Editor of The Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and are unequaled by any other. They are for sale here by J. James Wood, Druggist.
